SPCA

CAT BEHAVIOR CLASS: On the last Saturday of every month, the SF/SPCA offers an informative, 1-hour class on cat behavior called "Tabby Tell All." $5 to $10. For more information or to reserve a space, call (415-522-3525).

FERAL CATS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM: Before a kitten can be placed at the SF/SPCA for adoption it must pass a behavior test. You can help get these kittens ready by playing with them. Free training provided. Contributions of any type of cat food are gladly accepted. For more information, call Emma at the SF/SPCA Low & Advocacy Dept. (415-522-3539 or www.sfspca.org).

SF/SPCA DOGGY DAYCARE: Mondays through Fridays, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Dogs must be at least 5 months old, spayed or neutered (unless they're puppies), friendly toward people and other dogs, not overly protective of food, toys, space and up-to-date on their vaccinations. Prior to admission, dogs and owners will be given an interview at the Doggy Day care Center, for which there is none-refundable $5 fee. $22 to $28 per day (415-554-3079).

SF/SPCA FOSTER PARENTS FOR KITTENS: Kittens and their mothers are in need of a few weeks' care in your home. Occasionally foster parents are needed for puppies, as well as adult dogs and cats. The SF/SPCA will provide the foster parent with food, medications if needed, and an unlimited supply of motherly advice. When the kittens are old enough and healthy enough to be adopted (at about eight weeks of age in most cases) the foster parent will return them to SPCA and placed in good homes (415-522-3542).
